To the Jonorable Court of County Comtainsioners for the County of Oxford at their adjourned Term, July, 1849:

July, 1649:

THE undersigned Petitioners would respectfully represent, that the road from or near John R. Chadbourn's in Summer, via. Jackson Village (so called) to Crockett's Point (so called) is extremely hilly and circuitous, and that alterations in the old road may be made and a new location for a part of the distance, so as greatly to facilitate the public travel, and that the same is of "common convenience and necessity:" Your Petitioners therefore ask that your Honors, after due notice, view the route, commencing at a hub standing on the County road leading from Woodstock to Summer, West of John R. Chadbourn's, via. of Jackson Village (so called) to the County road leading from Summer to Buckfield at or near Crockett's point (so called) and make such alterations and locations as you in your judgment may deem expedient, and as in bound, &c.
